Upon researching, he found that

Cost of hiring a Video Editor = £2,482 per month

Cost of hiring a Graphic designer = £1,933 per month

What was the YouTuber's issue?

John had to hire four video editors and one graphic designer, but he found that hiring them locally was quite costly. In the UK, video editors were being paid an average of £2,482 per month and Graphic designers £1,933 per month. This was eating into his budget, and he knew he had to find a way to reduce his expenses.

How did he find a solution to this?

With VirtualStaff.ph, John was able to hire four video editors for just £1,102 per month per staff, a savings of £1,380 per staff member per month. He also hired one graphic designer for £1,000 per month per staff, a savings of £933 per staff member per month.

Overall, John was able to save a total of £5,520 per month by switching to VirtualStaff.ph!

This allowed him to invest the savings into creating better quality videos and improve his channel even more. He was able to keep the same quality of work, but at a fraction of the cost by outsourcing to VirtualStaff.ph.
